Property Description

Location: Portugal, Sintra

Belas Clube de Campo is the right place for those seeking quality of life and contact with nature. A product of the André Jordan Group, located just 15 min from Lisbon's city center, with one of Portugal's best golf courses, restaurants and attractions for all ages, Belas Clube de Campo is one of the finest residential resorts in a European capital.

Having completed two decades, Belas Clube de Campo is in constant evolution and its newest phase, Lisbon Green Valley, is ready to welcome your family with state-of-the-art apartments, townhouses and plots for villas. The João de Deus School, - Portugal's oldest and largest private-education organization – will provide Portuguese and English curriculums, and welcomes students from kindergarten to the 9th grade.

Additionally, Lisbon Green Valley also envisions an equestrian center, health facilities and a hotel.

The new units have put even greater emphasis on sustainability, having been considered “the most sustainable homes in Portugal”.
