Location: Spain, El Paraíso

Fantastic designer Villa recently completed in a luxury Villa urbanisation in Marbella. Modern Contemporary Style with innovative Architecture. Incorporating the latest technology in the specifications.

We arrive at the villa via beautiful gardens with pools and water features, giving a distinctive Zen touch. This modern home showcases a strong connection between a house and its surrounding, creating a smooth flow between the living room and the terraces with swimming pool. The result is fresh-looking and well-lit interiors and breathtaking, unobstructed views of the natural landscapes. From the entrance hall, we are immediately drawn to the spectacular open plan living areas.

The architect has included lots of transparency, with a particular emphasis on the light entry into the entire house. Automated Gate entrance to a large courtyard with parking for several cars.
