Luxury Golf Villa within Finca Cortesin

This charming residence offering guests the perfect ambiance for a relaxing summer holiday in Spain. Situated between Marbella and Sotogrande, and bordered by the Casares Mountains, the award-winning resort on which this villa is situated is the perfect golf and spa destination for discerning guests.

One of three similarly designed and decorated villas in the resort, this luxury villa is an attractive fuse of traditional and contemporary décor elements. The reclaimed stone flooring, rustic white walls, and tranquil gardens exude a veritable Spanish character, inviting guests to simply relax and enjoy.

Not only will guests enjoy exclusive use of the villa's facilities including a swimming pool, outdoor lounge and dining area, upscale guest suites, but they will also have access to the resort's awarded spa and impeccable dining and hospitality in the resort's signature restaurant Kabuki.

The private villas situated between holes nine and ten within the golf course benefit from views over the golf course, Sierra Bermeja mountain range and some also enjoy sea views. Built on individual plots measuring up to 2.200 sq. m., each villa offers five en-suite bedrooms, a comfortable living room, a modern kitchen with all modern domestic appliances, as well as private garden and pool.

These luxury villas are ideal for groups of up to 10 friends or family members looking for an unforgettable holiday destination that caters for both golf lovers and spa aficionados.

Finca Cortesin was chosen as part of the Conde Nast Traveler Gold List 2020 - Best Hotels & Resorts in the World.

NB: The villa shown in the photos is for reference only and actual villa booked may vary slightly in layout/style. The property listed is one of five similarly decorated properties on the estate.
