Property Description

Location:

Surrounded by prestigious golf courses and just moments from the Mediterranean, this elegant villa in Sotogrande offers a refined lifestyle where nature, privacy, and the exclusivity of the Costa del Sol come together in perfect harmony.

Inspired by Andalusian character and located only minutes from Marbella, the property presents a unique retreat designed for those seeking tranquility without compromising connectivity or sophistication.

Set on an expansive 2,900 m² plot, the villa offers 367 m² of built space distributed across three carefully designed levels, combining generous proportions with functional elegance.

The residence features four bright bedrooms, four full bathrooms, and an additional guest powder room, with each space designed to provide comfort, privacy, and natural light throughout the home.

Interior and exterior areas connect naturally, allowing the surrounding landscape to become part of the living experience.

Sotogrande is recognised as one of Europe's most exclusive residential destinations, offering a rare balance between luxury living, natural beauty, and Mediterranean lifestyle.

The area is internationally known for its exceptional golf offering, including Real Club Valderrama, one of the world's most prestigious golf courses and host of major international tournaments.

It is also home to the renowned marina of Sotogrande Marina, surrounded by fine dining, boutiques, and exclusive leisure services.

Natural beauty defines the area, with beaches, forests, and panoramic views toward the Mediterranean and Gibraltar creating a distinctive coastal environment.

Excellent connections to Marbella, Estepona, and Málaga Airport make the location ideal for both permanent residence and seasonal living.

With an international community and strong traditions in sailing, polo, and golf, Sotogrande remains one of southern Europe's most sought-after addresses.
